

Check Airman Approvals:

Part 142 instructors and evaluators seeking the authority to administer training, checking and testing in accordance with 135.293 and 297 should only have to meet the following requirements:

1. Compliance with 142.47, 142.53 and 142.55 should ensure compliance with 135.337, 135.338, 135.339 and 135.340.
2. Training centers must provide the documentation that 142 compliance has been met.
3. Training Center Evaluators approved by the TCPM need no further FAA approval to conduct checking and testing in accordance with Part 135.
4. Annual proficiency checks required by Part 142 will be considered as an alternative means of compliance of Part 135.293 and 135.297 proficiency checks for simulator check airmen employed by a Part 142 training center.
5. Compliance with annual flight experience requirements of 142.53(b) will be considered an alternative means of compliance with the flight experience requirements of 135.337(f)
